The Portland Division of the FBI had developed information that [redacted] had rented a 1971 Cougar on October 19, 1971 for a period of 1 month. He did not return the vehicle until February 14, 1972 and had accumulated only [redacted] on the vehicle.

On February 27, 1974, [redacted] furnished the following information to SA [redacted]

b6
b7C

As was his habit, when the construction season ended, [redacted] flew from Alaska to Portland, Oregon in the Fall of 1971, to visit [redacted]. He recalls that he rented a Cougar automobile in Portland, Oregon and caused quite a bit of consternation on the part of the rental company because he did not return the vehicle until mid-February, 1972. [redacted] explained that he did not realize he was causing the trouble by keeping the car for an extended period of time and would not have done so had he realized this. Concerning credit cards, [redacted] stated he did not utilize them and has no recollection of utilizing a credit card at the time he rented the Cougar. After obtaining the vehicle, [redacted] made at least 5 trips between Portland and Coquille, Oregon, which is where [redacted]. He stated that the one way distance between these 2 points is [redacted] and feels that during the approximately 4 months that he had the Cougar, he must have put between [redacted] miles on the vehicle. After visiting Coquille, he would travel back to Portland, where [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] could not explain why Hertz Rent-A-Car records would show that he only had [redacted] on the vehicle, as he did not turn the speedometer back or disconnect it at any time while it was in his possession. He feels that he was charged for the use of many more miles than [redacted]

b6
b7C

Concerning his source of money while visiting in Oregon on this occasion, [redacted] displayed his savings account passbook at the St. Johns Branch, Security Bank of Oregon, 7410 North Chicago Avenue, Portland, Oregon, account number [redacted]. This account had been opened on February 23, 1972.

b6
b7C

[redacted] displayed his checking account record with the First National Bank of Anchorage, which indicated that the account contained as high as [redacted] at one time prior to 1972, and contained in excess of [redacted] when it was closed out in 1972.

b7C

[redacted] explained he closed his checking account and deposited the money in the savings bank in Oregon as it was impossible for him to write checks on a Bethel, Alaska bank while he was visiting in Portland.

b6

[redacted] recalls that he was living in Portland at the time of the hijacking of an aircraft by "D.B. COOPER". He recalls reading the newspaper articles of the hijacking, but denied that he has any personal knowledge of this matter.

Reference memo of SA [redacted] 1/31/74.

At Olympia, Washington

On February 14, 1974, [redacted]
[redacted] Washington State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, made available the file, number 6737 concerning HAROLD RAY HARDESTY, FBI Number 109 477. Also made available was a photograph of HARDESTY taken on July 2, 1954, which is the most recent photograph available in this file.

b6

According to the file, HARDESTY committed 19 armed robberies during the year of 1941; was the ring leader of three robbers; used a pistol in the execution of these robberies and offered as an explanation after being caught that he was obtaining money for which to buy an airplane. He was sentenced out of King County for a 9-year minimum sentence on January 30, 1942. On July 4, 1944, HARDESTY escaped from the Walla Walla Penitentiary by fire bombing a guard tower and using grappling hooks and lines to scale the walls. Subsequently he was apprehended by Federal authorities in the Detroit, Michigan area and was convicted for interstate transportation of stolen property. For this he was committed to the U.S. Penitentiary at Leavenworth. At the expiration of this term he was returned to the Walla Walla Penitentiary on March 3, 1950. He was then tried and found guilty of escape and sentenced to 10 years. He was paroled on September 28, 1954 to the custody of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. HARDESTY, 14301 East Burnside, Portland, Oregon. He was handled by the Portland Office of the Probation and Parole Division in the State of Oregon. He was still interested in flying at that time; he found a job in a cheap hotel and was still living with his parents at the time of his conditional discharge from supervision on October 21, 1955. In 1958 a background investigation was conducted concerning HARDESTY to determine if he was eligible for the restoration of his civil rights. At that time he was a member of the Sailors' Union of the Pacific Merchant Marines. He said since he had been released from supervision, he had been in Tallahassee, Florida for about six months, returning to Portland and working as a free lance photographer. He then joined the Sailors' Union of the Pacific as an ordinary seaman. He married a LORETTA AILEEN PAWSEY, age 23 on April 30, 1958, having met her in his own parent's home in Portland. The most recent photograph was taken prior to his last parole, but shows him as virtually bald, having a round face, wearing glasses, 5'8", 180 pounds, hazel eyes and brown hair. He has a scar on his left wrist outter and his race is white. He was born April 4, 1918, Freewater, Oregon. He is a graduate of Roosevelt High School, Seattle, Washington and at one time [REDACTED]

Dear Sirs:

I have been kindled to public interests from reading the apathy riddled Watergate case in your recent issues of TIME, especially your Sherlock Holmes story (Jan. 28)

therefore I decided to mention an episode that transpired about 4 months ago. (Now, without detail as its relative importance may have already caused the nearest trash can to wonder of its latest acquisition.)

I believe I saw D.B. Cooper, the Northwest Airline sky-jacker in San Jose, Costa Rica. I further believe he recognized my startled recognition of him, possibly as I am from Bellevue, Washington - the only known association of his training as a sky jumper. Possibly again this led to his departure from here long ago.

Stirred from my apathy of "foreign affairs" and folk heroism that D.B. Cooper commands in the Northwest I respect fully submit this tardy but sincere letter.

Re Miami airtel to Seattle 12/6/73.

On 2/12/74, [REDACTED]
Cutler Ridge, Fla., advised she recalled [REDACTED] who lived at [REDACTED] 4 or 5 years ago.

[REDACTED] viewed artist's conception drawings of the unsub in this case showing him both with and without glasses.
She advised that these drawings bore no resemblance to him in any respect. She added that [REDACTED] was a sedentary type, had a large protruding paunch, although he was not a stocky person, and had a fair complexion. She was unable to say where he is now located.

On 3/25/74, [REDACTED] advised he recalled [REDACTED] quite well. He stated that the drawings of the unsub do not have anything in common with the appearance of [REDACTED]. He said [REDACTED] was over 50% bald and had almost totally white hair. He was of very fair complexion. He gave the impression of being flabby physically and had poor posture.

[REDACTED] had no knowledge of [REDACTED] current location.

Gentlemen:

I heard a story last November, while playing cards with a group of friends in South Jersey which I have never been able to get out of my mind because it made me think of the skyjacker you have never caught, Mr. Cooper.

It was about a man named [redacted] who was once under suspicion as a skyjacker. He, apparently, is now living on the West Coast.

[redacted] was then moving to the [redacted] [redacted] because [redacted]

according to my friends had lived in about [redacted]
New Jersey - [redacted] The trouble that interested me, however, was the story [redacted] and the skyjacking matter. The way they talked about him, it seemed to me that he fitted the description of the Cooper skyjacker.

b6
b7c

Did you think to check out [redacted] Are you still investigating the Cooper matter? If my hunch is correct, I will present a copy of this letter to you and collect any reward.

Good Luck!

P. S. I have just talked to one of the ladies at the card party and she says that you might be able to find out some information from [redacted]

[REDACTED] ABOUT 1 OR 2 WEEKS AFTER HIJACKING OCCURRED, THE EX-PARATROOPER MOVED AWAY CLAIMING HE WAS GOING TO PUERTO RICO TO LIVE. [REDACTED] LEFT A COUPLE OF WEEKS BEFORE HE DID. WHEN HE LEFT, HE SOLD ALL HIS FURNITURE AT VERY CHEAP PRICES. THE EX-PARATROOPER WAS DESCRIBED BY [REDACTED] AS WMA, LATE 30'S, APPROXIMATELY 5 FEET 10 INCHES, SLENDER BUILD BUT BIG BONED, SHORT BLACK HAIR, TAN COMPLEXION.

AT THE TIME UNSUB'S ARTIST CONCEPTION DRAWING APPEARED IN LOCAL PAPERS AT TACOMA, [REDACTED] NOTED SOME RESEMBLANCE TO THE EX-PARATROOPER. ALSO IT IS [REDACTED] RECOLLECTION THAT EX-PARATROOPER'S DESCRIPTION GENERALLY SIMILAR TO UNSUB. THIS FACT COUPLED WITH THE FACT THE NEIGHBOR WAS AN EX-PARATROOPER AND THAT HE MOVED AWAY SHORTLY AFTER HIJACKING OCCURRED LEADS [REDACTED] TO BELIEVE HE COULD BE CONSIDERED A POSSIBLE SUSPECT IN CAPTIONED CASE.

SEATTLE AT TACOMA, IDENTIFY EX-PARATROOPER DESCRIBED ABOVE BY QUESTIONING [REDACTED] SUPRA, OR OTHER LOGICAL NEIGHBORS, AND THEREAFTER DETERMINE IF HE COULD BE CONSIDERED LOGICAL SUSPECT IN CAPTIONED CASE.

The Crime

A lone white male using the name Dan Cooper boarded Northwest Orient Airlines Flight No. 305 at Portland, Oreg., on November 24, 1971. At approximately 3:22 p.m., while the flight was en route to Seattle, Wash., he indicated to a stewardess that his briefcase contained a bomb which would blow up the plane unless his demands were met.

The hijacker demanded $200,000 and four parachutes in exchange for the safety of the 36 passengers aboard the plane. When the aircraft landed at Seattle, Northwest Orient Airlines complied with his instructions. After he received the parachutes and money, the hijacker allowed all passengers and two of the airline stewardesses to deplane.

He then ordered the remaining crew members into the first-class section of the aircraft and informed them he desired to fly to Mexico City. The hijacker instructed that the plane proceed in a southerly direction and fly at a low altitude and slow speed which enabled the rear door of the plane to be opened during the flight.

The hijacker apparently bailed out somewhere between Seattle and Reno, Nev., where, when the plane landed, it was determined that "Cooper," two parachutes, and the ransom money had disappeared.

The Criminal

INVESTIGATIVE STEPS TO PROCESS NORJAK SUSPECTS

This list in no way represents all the means available to process a suspect. Each individual case prompts a different method; one or more of the below listed methods have been used in the past.

1. Obtain current descriptive data (particularly useful is age, height and complexion),
2. Ascertain location on November 24, 1971, by
 - (a) checking employment records.
 - (b) checking cancelled checks or credit card transactions.
 - (c) interviewing acquaintances or relatives (note November 24th was the day before Thanksgiving, 1971).
3. Ascertain present location to determine if he is alive or if he appears to be in hiding.

COVER PAGE

DB Cooper 12/62

SE 164-81

4. Ascertain if he has knowledge of airplanes or parachuting (i.e. private pilot's license, skydiving experience, or military jump experience).
5. Obtain current photograph, color if possible, to display to witnesses. (Note: All NORJAK eyewitnesses have been repeatedly contacted and have reviewed numerous photographs. Up to now they have been extremely cooperative, not withstanding the many contacts they have endured both at work and at home. Based on the above, these witnesses will not be contacted to view photographs unless there is no other way to eliminate a suspect).
6. Compare suspect's fingerprints and palm prints with NORJAK partials on file ⁱⁿ the Identification ~~Bureau~~ ^{WITH} ~~Division~~.
7. Ascertain if he is in any way familiar with the Pacific Northwest area and in particular if he ever flew over this area.
8. Check current financial situation and contrast it to his situation prior to NORJAK.
9. Determine if he smokes cigarettes or if he ever smoked cigarettes. (Note: Unsub smoked Raleigh cigarettes).
10. Determine if he was registered at a motel or hotel near the Portland Airport just prior to NORJAK.
11. Determine if he made any trial runs prior to NORJAK on airlines flying between Portland and Seattle.
12. Determine if has a safe deposit box and consider feasibility of obtaining a court order to determine its contents.
13. Compare his hair to hair fiber found on NORJAK airplane.

SE 164-81

14. Check medical records (subject was apparently in good health and athletic at the time of NORJAK but he could have been injured in the jump).
15. Determine if he had reason to have a grudge on November 24, 1971. (Possibilities might be loss of job, especially airline-related job, Vietnam War, ethnic freedom, etc.)
16. Determine his criminal background. (It is felt Unsub was not an experienced criminal.)
17. Determine suspect's educational background. (Unsub was probably a high school graduate and may have had further education.)
18. Determine if he is or was an alcoholic. (It is felt Unsub was not an alcoholic.)
19. Determine if he has an accent of any kind. (Unsub did not.)
20. Determine if the tie or tie tac found on NORJAK belongs to suspect.
21. Check suspect's name through
 - (a) St. Louis Office for military records to determine jump experience. (Note: need service number or SSAN.)
 - (b) Airline Pilot Association (ALPA), headquarters Washington, D.C.
 - (c) Parachute Club of America, U.S. Parachute Association, PO Box 109, Monterey, California 93940.
 - (d) Raleigh Coupon Redemption Center, Brown and Williamson Tobacco Company, Hill Street, Louisville, Kentucky. (Records kept only one year.)

Shortly after the crime, she recalls [redacted] was contacted by FBI Agents and alerted for information as to who the hijacker might be. She stated that definitely [redacted] is not the individual and has no knowledge as to who it might be. If he had received any information along these lines, he would have immediately notified the FBI. At that time, he had another individual by the name of DARREL JALGET working for him, but this individual has since been killed in a plane accident at Issaquah. On April 4, 1974, [redacted] [redacted] Custer, Washington, telephone [redacted] furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

He definitely recalls the date the hijacker known as D.B. COOPER was involved in his caper with Northwest Airlines. He first heard of this on radio messages that day and evening. He, at that time, lived in Lynden and operated [redacted] on the Lummi Indian Reservation near Marietta, Washington. He was in this area at the time working, and had no connection with this crime, or knowledge of it, and has never come up with any suspects in connection with his [redacted]. He was definitely at home and at work during the time of this skyjacking and he [redacted] visited with one of the other [redacted] on the following day, Thanksgiving, as they do each year.

b7C

Shortly after this took place, just how long he cannot now recall, he was visited by some FBI Agents and interviewed as to his knowledge of any possible suspects. At that time he was exhibited an artist's photograph showing the individual wearing dark glasses.

[redacted] is an experienced [redacted]
[redacted]
He first started to jump [redacted] while he was in the Navy, and he later started to fly [redacted] while in the Air Force. However, he never jumped or flew in his assignments in the services, but learn to do these things on his own and at his own expense because of his interest in the sport.

b6
b7C

He was in the Navy from [redacted] Serial No. [redacted] and in the Air Force from [redacted] Serial No. [redacted] which is his Social Security No. also. The only times he has been fingerprinted were in connection with his enlistments in the military.

b6
b7C

Interviewed on 4/4/74 at Custer, Washington File # SE 164-81-6210
by SA [redacted] /bjb Date dictated 4/8/74

b6
b7C

He does not smoke cigarettes and has never smoked. He has visited in Portland in the past, but was not in Portland at any time around the time of this hijacking. He has a high school education [redacted]

[redacted] that he has taken on his own, plus the education he received in the military services. He does not drink, and only occasionally takes a can a beer. He has no accent of any kind. He is presently 5'11", and weighs 152 lbs. He has taken off over 35 lbs. in the last two months on a crash diet, and intends to stay down thin. His hair is light brown in color and curly, and he has never dyed his hair. His eyes are blue and he has to wear glasses at all times in order to see properly.

[redacted] advised this particular jump out the rear end of a 727 jet, under the circumstances, that he has learned as to how it happened would be "duck soup" for an experienced jumper. Anyone who has made over 100 parachute jumps would be considered an experienced jumper that would have no trouble with this type of jump. Further, from his knowledge of piloting various planes for parachute jumpers, he feels there is no way that the pilot could feel physically any change in the plane when the jumper went out. A plane of that size and under those conditions would not physically or in any way that could be detected by a human being, change its status so the person leaving the plane could be detected.

One of the basis he has for saying this is if he closes his eyes and plugs his ears while flying [redacted] he cannot determine when one parachutist has actually left the plane. Of course if several leave at the same time, then he definitely can detect this.

[redacted] expressed a desire to continue to cooperate in any way necessary, and if he should develop any information that might lead to any suspects, he will immediately advise.

The following day, on November 23, 1971, he drove to Eugene, Oregon, where he went to a motel called the "Town" or "Townhouse" motel located on a one way street going north in Eugene. He believes this street was a numbered street, possibly 6th or 7th Street in Eugene.

Synopsis: Investigation to identify Unsub. to date has been negative. Information disseminated during the prior hunting season produced leads, but no positive results. A new reward has been offered by the Portland, Oregon Journal of $1,000 for the first missing $20 bill recovered. Investigation continuing. ARMED & DANGEROUS.

- P -

DETAILS:

Investigation to identify Unsub. to date has been negative.

Prior to the hunting season which began in October, 1973, the Seattle Division again disseminated information concerning this matter to hunters via the Washington State Game Wardens responsible for the area into which Unsub. parachuted.

At the end of the 1973 hunting season, no positive results were achieved from the leads that were received because of the publicity made available to Pacific Northwest hunters.

On 12/17/73, EARL COSSEY advised that the parachute supplied to Unsub. was made of a white "rip-stop" material invented since 1945. Several of the canopies shown to him as possibly being identical with Unsub.'s parachute were made of a "twill" material manufactured prior to 1945. Further, COSSEY stated, the parachutes supplied to Unsub. were of a nonstearable variety with no steering devices whatever.

It is noted that although COSSEY "packed" Unsub.'s parachutes they were the property of [redacted] address [redacted] Kent, Washington, phone number [redacted] advised on 5/20/74 that the parachutes used by Unsub. had no hooks on which to fasten a chest pack, i.e., auxiliary parachute. [redacted] stated that an experienced parachutist would be able to fashion ties to the "back pack", i.e., main parachute, which would allow the auxiliary parachute to be fastened to the "back pack" and it could be used in an emergency.

The main parachute used by Unsub. is described as follows:

Model NB6 (Navy Back Pack 6) in a sage green nylon container with matching harness, without "D" rings to attach an auxiliary parachute. The parachute has a 28-foot white nylon flat circular canopy with a specially fitted foam padded cushion. The pilot chute is also white. The "chest pack" parachute used by Unsub. was a training pack dummied up to look like a good parachute for training purposes. It has no pilot chute and its canopy is white in color.

On 11/22/73, the Portland, Oregon Journal Newspaper offered a reward of $1,000 for the first missing $20 bill "recovered from the loot collected two years ago by D. B. COOPER, the still missing parachuting airplane hijacker." In a Portland, Oregon Journal article dated 11/26/73, the following information was published:

"The Journal is making its 'Secret Witness' plan available for use in helping recover the 'Cooper cash,' the $200,000 that disappeared the night of Nov. 24, 1971, with the parachuting hijacker popularly known as D. B. COOPER.

"The plan can be used with or separate from the newspaper's offer to pay $1,000 for the first $20 bill to be turned in that can be verified by the FBI to be part of the money Cooper obtained from Northwest Orient Airlines prior to jumping from a jetliner he had commandeered. It can be used to return the money, enter into negotiations for its return or to provide information on the whereabouts of the elusive hijacker.

"The 'Secret Witness' plan will enable someone with one or more of the missing bills to surrender the money and still keep his or her identity secret.

"Here is how to use the plan:

"1. Place the money in a place of your choosing and write down instructions for locating it.

"2. Do not sign your name, but on both lower corners of the first page write a code, using any combination of numbers and letters.

"3. Tear off one of the corners, making a jagged tear. Keep the torn off corner bearing your code and mail the report containing the duplicate code to 'Secret Witness,' The Journal, 1320 SW Broadway, Portland, Ore. 97201.

"The Journal will forward your information to the FBI which will pick up the money and verify whether it is indeed from the Cooper ransom. If it is, that fact will be published in the newspaper.

"After that, give the torn off corner you have kept to a trusted friend or to an attorney or to your minister with instructions to take it directly to the Secret Witness plan coordinator at The Journal. If the codes and torn edges match, your agent will be given the $1,000 for the first $20 of the 'Cooper cash' to be turned in."

In addition to the above reward, [redacted] Northwest Orient Airlines, authorized a finder's fee of $25,000 total reward or 15% of any portion of the D.B. COOPER ransom money that is returned.

b7c

Finally, the Seattle Post Intelligencer Newspaper has offered a $5,000 reward in connection with its "Secret Witness Program" for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person responsible for this crime.

On 11/29/73, the following article was published in the Tacoma, Washington News Tribune under the headline "Skyjacker Cooper: Still A Folk Hero, Still A Mystery":

"Two years after parachuting from a Northwest Airlines jet with $200,000 in ransom money, the skyjacker known as Dan Cooper remains a folk hero and a mystery.

"He is, according to the U. S. Department of Transportation, the only person ever to hijack a domestic airliner who has not been killed or brought to justice.

" 'We really know nothing more about him today than we did at 11 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 24, 1971,' says [redacted] special agent in charge of the Portland FBI office.

b6
b7c

"Authorities said this is what happened on that Thanksgiving Eve:

"A man who gave his name as Dan Cooper bought a one-way ticket at Portland International Airport to Seattle aboard Northwest Airlines' Flight 305 which originated in Washington, D.C.

"No antihijacking measures were in operation as the 36 passengers boarded the Boeing 727 for the 25-minute flight.

"Once in the air, Cooper handed stewardess [] a note saying he had a bomb. Following Cooper's orders, [] sat beside the skyjacker and wrote down instructions to the pilot.

b6
b7c

"He wanted 10,000 $20 bills to be delivered to him at Seattle in a laundry sack, along with two sets of parachutes. Otherwise he threatened to blow up the plane.

"Airline officials and Federal Bureau of Investigation agents complied with his requests and Cooper allowed the passengers and two of the three stewardesses to disembark at Seattle.

"Then he ordered the plane to fly south to Reno, Nev., at 200 miles per hour, at 10,000 feet, flaps down. The crew was to stay in the cockpit.

"After takeoff from Seattle, a red light flashed in the cockpit indicating the plane's rear boarding ramp had been unlatched.

"Nothing was heard from Cooper for about 20 minutes. At 8:10 p.m., as the plane crossed the Lewis River in southwestern Washington, [] thought the hijacker was having trouble with the ramp and called back over the plane's interphone:

b6
b7c

"Anything we can do for you?"

"There was no answer.

"Another light flashed showing the ramp was fully extended. A few seconds later the hijacker came back on the interphone: "No."

"That was the last ever heard of him.

"When the plane landed in Reno, the rear ramp was down and Cooper was gone. The 21-pound sack of money was gone. One set of parachutes was gone. The skyjacker, who had carefully reclaimed his note to the stewardess, had left no fingerprints.

"Authorities believed Cooper jumped from the plane near Woodland, Wash. The town was transformed into a bustling command post for a small army of newsmen and dozens of FBI agents, police and soldiers from Ft. Lewis.

"With planes, helicopters, Jeeps and track dogs, they combed the vast, densely wooded region northeast of Woodland. Much of it was rugged terrain, thick with freshly fallen snow, and virtually impassable.

"The hijacker left the plane clad only in a light business suit and street shoes. He parachuted into the blackness of a raging thunderstorm, into a 200 m.p.h. hour wind and temperatures of minus 7 degrees.

"He could not have survived, police reasoned. They said they were simply looking for a body and a bag of money and that could wait until the spring thaw. A week later the army of searchers was disbanded.

"In the ensuing months Cooper became a legend in the Northwest - pictured as a lone Robin Hood who stole from a giant corporation, hurt no one and got away. A song extolling his feat became a hit. "D. B. Cooper, Where Are You?" Tee shirts sold by the thousands.

"The media had erroneously identified the skyjacker as D. B. rather than Dan Cooper.

"Then, late in March, 1972, 300 soldiers from Ft. Lewis searched the thawing terrain for 18 days. They found not a trace of Cooper, 'although we did find a body and cleared up a local murder.' says FBI agent [redacted]

b6
b7c

" 'We investigated every report and so far have proved that the various men reported to be Cooper could not have been the man on Flight 305.' [redacted] says.

b6
b7c

SE 164-81

" 'We have no physical evidence to go on except the $20 bills,' he said, adding the numbers of all 10,000 bills were circulated to banks in a 34-page booklet. None has turned up.

"Northwest Airlines, which offered a $25,000 reward for recovery of the ransom, has canceled the offer.

"But last week, on the second anniversary of the hijacking, the Oregon Journal newspaper offered $1,000 to anyone who could produce one of the $20 bills. There have been no takers.

[redacted] says a number of FBI agents have worked on the case, to no avail."

b6
b7c

The Seattle Division advised Minneapolis by airtel dated 7/23/73 as follows:

It is possible that Unsub. made a trial run or runs prior to NORJAK, with the purpose of perfecting his hijack plan. If passenger lists of flights from Portland to Seattle for two weeks prior to NORJAK could be obtained the names on these lists could be compared to NORJAK indices, and other lists currently on file at Seattle in order to possibly identify Unsub.

In an attempt to determine if Unsub. made a trial run prior to NORJAK, [redacted] Northwest Orient Airlines, Seattle, Washington, was contacted and furnished the following information:

b6
b7c

Records of reservations are stored in Northwest Orient Airline Univac Computer Systems and can be retrieved as far back as 5 years. Copies of tickets sold by Northwest Orient Airlines are on file and can also be reviewed.

Concerning the above, the Minneapolis Division advised that tapes recording passengers of all Northwest Orient Airlines flights are maintained by Northwest Orient Airlines only six (6) months. The tapes are then erased and reused. No passenger lists for Northwest Orient Airlines flights from Portland to Seattle from 11/10/71 to 11/23/71 are in existence.

The San Francisco Division advised by airtel dated 11/21/73 of the following:

On 11/19/73, [REDACTED]
Novato, California, advised as follows:

b6
b7C

Since he had seen the movie "Airport" on television he has given a great deal of thought as to how this crime was perpetrated. He stated that he was principally interested in obtaining any reward that might be forthcoming for furnishing information concerning this case. He also stated that he had formally worked on airplanes and was familiar with them; however, he did not know the difference between a Boeing 727 and a 737.

In essence, [REDACTED] theory is that the hijacker was probably a mechanic for Northwest Orient Airlines and at some time prior to the hijacking, had access to this particular aircraft. According to [REDACTED] any confident mechanic, if given enough time, could remove panels from the airplane, either in the floor or restroom area, secrete himself in the space after fashioning some kind of device to pull the panel or floor in behind him. He suggested that the hijacker could have gotten into the cargo area and hidden in a box in the above manner. [REDACTED] theory was that a mechanic with the Airline could have accomplished these things at any time when the aircraft was having a major overhaul.

b7C

It should be pointed out that in all probability the hijacker jumped from the aircraft since there was evidence of a pressure change when the stairwell closed apparently after a heavy object jumped from the stairs. The same pressure change occurred when a subsequent demonstration was conducted by throwing a 150 lb. object from the stairs.

The Minneapolis Division advised by communication dated 1/4/74 as follows:

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Northwest Orient Airlines, was contacted on 12/17/73. [REDACTED] advised that it would be virtually impossible for unknown subject to remove panels from the airplane, either in the floor or restroom area, in order to secrete himself under the floor of the airplane. He advised that in order to remove the panels, rivets must be removed. He advised that the floor panels are small and it would require the removal of several of the panels in order for a man to secrete himself under the floor. [REDACTED] advised that an individual very familiar with the aircraft could get from the cabin area to the cargo area using internal passages. He advised that if the individual accomplished this feat, he would experience extreme cold. He advised that the air pressure in the cargo area is adjusted and could be tolerated by an individual.

[redacted] advised that when the 727 aircraft landed after the hijacking incident, it was thoroughly inspected. He advised that flooring was removed in both the passenger and restroom sections, floor panels were removed, and the entire cargo area was inspected, as well as all cargo contained in that area. [redacted] advised that it was his opinion that Unsub. was not in the 727 when it landed.

At approximately 1030 hours this date while on duty at "C" Checkpoint, a man came up to the Scanray who looked very familiar to R/O. The first thing that caught my eye was his hair, and I thought it was D. B. Cooper who hijacked Northwest Airlines flight 305 on 11-24-71. The description I got from looking at him was as follows: approximately 6' tall, 170 lbs., black hair (receding), W/M/A, age in 40's, olive complexion, wearing a brown suit and carrying a briefcase approximately 14" long, 10" high and 4" wide. When he arrived at the checkpoint the first thing he did was put out a cigarette in the ash can. He looked at me and immediately turned his head. The description of subject on composite is as follows: W/M, middle 40's, 5' 10" to 6', 170 - 180 lbs., dark brown or black hair, heavy smoker, wearing black or brown suit, carrying brief case.

After I had been relieved on the checkpoint, I came up to the office to see if we had a picture of subject and none could be found. I went back to the detectives' office and asked [REDACTED] and he said he would recognize him if he saw him. We both then went down to C-6 and they were boarding the flight. [REDACTED] said that it was very close resemblance. We stood so that as they were walking to the gate we could get a face-on view and when he saw us, he put his boarding pass under his nose to hide his mouth. We let him board and I then contacted FAA and gave them the information and they took over.

SA [] has information re call from Sheriff CLOSER, Skamania County re parachute found at Mt. Margaret area so it will not be repeated in this communication.

Request of SA [] to contact SO [] Kelso, Wn. re finding of old $20 bill near Mt. St. Helens.

b6
b7C

On 11/20/74 [] Weyerhaeuser Security, Longview, Wn. was contacted and he advised that on Saturday morning 11/16/74 he was hunting in dry wash of Mt. St. Helens and met another hunter. They spoke about hunting and both agreed no good. Other hunter said it wasn't total loss for had found an old, dirty $20 bill in the wash that morning. Nothing more was said and [] never got any information on the $20 bill, location where found (other than very general in dry wash area which is quite large), name of hunter or any other information. Has no further information on this.

b6
b7C

Only when he (later that day) heard about the parachute being spotted did he feel that he should have found where the $20 was located by the unknown hunter. However he could offer no information other than that set forth above. However in view of the very wide, wild and heavily brushed area and no specific location and also nebulous information set forth above no search of the area appears to be feasible or necessary.

AT SIERRA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

On October 25, 1974, Sheriff SAM DOYLE of the Sierra County, California, Sheriff's Office, telephonically advised the Sacramento Division of the FBI that some hunters in the vicinity of Sierraville, California, had located some property which he wished to bring to the attention of the FBI in view of the skyjacking case in which an individual known as D. B. COOPER parachuted from the craft approximately two years ago.

DOYLE stated that the hunters found among other things a harness which probably was a portion of a parachute or parachutes. He advised that there were other quantities of what appeared to be camping equipment. He stated that the material found, however, was extremely deteriorated and it appeared that it probably had been exposed to the elements for ten or more years. He advised that he believed that his [redacted] at Loyalton, California, has the recovered property.

On October 24, 1974, [redacted] Sacramento, telephonically contacted the Sacramento FBI Office. [redacted] advised he was calling to determine if the Sierra County Sheriff's Office had notified the FBI regarding some items that were located [redacted] Sacramento, California, telephone [redacted] on the evening of October 19, 1974.

[redacted] advised they were deer hunting approximately three miles from Sierraville, California, and found miscellaneous items to include a parachute, two jump suits, and two pair of paratrooper boots.

On October 25, 1974, [redacted] of the Sierra County Sheriff's Office was interviewed. He advised that after finding the property discovered by [redacted] of Sacramento, it was determined by his department that the property could in no way have been associated with the sky-jacking connected with D. B. COOPER within the past two or three years. He said there were large quantities of what appeared to be camping equipment and it was felt that the property had been exposed to the elements for at least ten years.

He stated that there formerly was a paramedic training facility operating out of the Stead Air Base near Reno, Nevada, and that trainees and instructors from that facility often parachuted into and trained in the Sierraville area.

He stated that he was quite certain that the highly deteriorated property found had been left by those trainees.

[redacted] advised that after coming to that conclusion he had disposed of the property at the Sierraville dump.

On October 25, 1974, a physical observation at the Sierraville dump concluded the discarded property could not be located.

I asked him what information he had, and he then explained that he tried to talk to SAC JULIUS MATTSON, FBI Portland, but could not get through to him. He said he will mail us a list of questions in a couple of days, and those questions will deal with captioned matter. He said the crime was a "great thing," and that fifteen people took part in it, not one. He then said he would like to be there when the victim plane is ^{CE}searched by the FBI. He would not explain further.

The caller was asked if he will have his name on the communication, so as to enable the FBI to contact him in the future if something needed clarification. He said that he would put a lot of numbers at the end and we could figure out the rest.
